Beer for Year!

It's award-winning beer from the Last Frontier and you can get your hands on a year supply! That's one case each month for an entire year! You'll get the taste a wide variety of the glacier fed beer with a different case each month which will include year round, seasonal, and limited edition beers chosen by Alaskan Brewery. From the historically based Alaskan Amber recipe to alder-smoked malts and Sitka spruce tips, Alaskan beers reflect Juneau's local brewing history and innovation. There are unique demands to brewing in the remote coastal community of Juneau. With no roads leading in or out, the ingredients they use to make their beer travels 900 miles by barge before arriving at their brewhouse. Alaskan Brewing seeks the most lean, efficient and sustainable modes of production to be able to grow without compromising quality or increasing their environmental footprint.

Vintage Park

One night stay at the Vintage Park Hotel downtown Seattle.

Bottle of Castello D'Albola Chianti Classico 2007. The wine offers a brilliant ruby red color. As time passes, the hue is enriched with garnet tones that, as the years go by, lighten further toward orange with an ochre tint typical of Tuscan wines. The aroma is satisfyingly intense, fine and elegant, with light scents of ripe fruits and violets. As it evolves, the wine develops an appealing bouquet that is full and complex. It possesses a pleasant fullness and an outstanding balance of body and structure. Somewhat austere in its youth, the wine softens with age, becoming velvety and developing prolonged and appealing aromatic persistence.
